

Reinsurance and Excess Lines

Niles Barton attorneys represent and counsel cedants, reinsurers, retrocessionaires, managing general agents, and brokers in arbitration, state and federal litigation, and all forms of alternative dispute resolution. We have experience in all stages of arbitration and litigation but also frequently counsel our clients in pre-dispute matters. Our experience with coverage issues in general, excess, and professional lines enables us to use a cost-effective approach to resolve both routine and the most complex reinsurance matters.

Our attorneys are both respected litigators and settlement professionals. We use our skills as both advocates and advisers to effectively represent insurance companies worldwide. Niles Barton has the resources and ability to handle reinsurance matters of any size or complexity while maintaining cost-efficiency and a client-centered approach. We see each of our clients as a valued partner and use our expertise to guide them to achieve their business goals.
